BABY WOLF TAKES A RACE.

DEFEATS DREAMER IN THE RICHMOND HANDICAP AT JAMAICA.

New York, October 30 .- Clear, but cold and breezy weather greeted race-goers at Jamaica to-The eard was of average excellence and contained a high-class sprinting feature in the Rich nond Handicap at six furlongs, in which some of the best horses in training were engaged. The race itself, however, was marred by a bad start, in which the favorite, Suffrage, as well as Keator, virtually eliminated as factors from the be Harry ginning, Suffrage only cantering around. M. Rogers, owner of Knockirky, claimed Sis ter Frances out of the second race for $1.620. Rogers recently acquired Knockirky for the insignificant sum of $300 and the impression prevails that the Daly cast-off is being started in races to enable his owner to exercise claiming privileges in a very profitable field of endeavor. CHARLIE EASTMAN'S BUSY CAREER.

A great begetter of speed was old Himyar from his earliest years in the stud until he died at an age far greater than the average of his kind. Foaled in 1903, Charlie Eastman is a creditable representative of Himyar's old age, and a sprinter always able to hold his own in good company. Making his debut at Nashville April 24, 1905, won a four and a half furlongs purse at his first start in 55%, defeating Helena C., Polly Prim and April 26 he won the Avondale Stakes eight more. at five furlongs, in 1:021, from Romola, Hyperion Kercheval and two more. Then he won the Lexington Stakes at Lexington, Ky., from Youth, Curiy Jim and six others over a muddy track, four and a half furlongs, in 56%. His first defeat was in the Bashford Manor Stakes, at Louisville, in which he ran second to the high-class colt, George C Rennett. Then, in succession, he won four times. a purse at Toronto, two at Highland Park and on at Latonia. A third to Minnie Adams and Rolla and another third to Orbicular and Hoi Polloi, both at Latonia, concluded his career as a two-yearold, and he went into winter quarters with the cellent record of having won seven races out of ten

In 1906 Charlie Eastman had an active career, in the course of which he won seventeen races, all His most notable exhibition of speed was at Fort Erie, August 16, when with 113 he defeated Hannibal Bey, 101, Tickle, 90 and Gold Enamel, 110, at three-quarters of a mile, in such fast time as 1:113, placing him in the select and very limited list of horses that have beaten 1:12 over other than a straight track. This year he has been the same speedy and reliable bread winner, and has done exceedingly well for his owner. To date his record is:

Track Still Heavy but Drying Out-Coup with Sam Bernard Fails.

Baltimore, Md., October 30 .- The track at Pimlice today was a great improvement over that of yesterday, but was still heavy. The going had injured the entry list somewhat, but for all that the races were full of interest and the public had a fair day in the speculative arena. Two features were on the card, a hunters' steeplechase and the handicap at one mile. Small fields started in both. The steeplechase proved a canter for the favorite Tellfare, who was in front all the way and finished a sixteenth of a mile in front of his field. This is a good jumper at present and can beat good ones

Mr. Chetland's Kumshaw, a winner on the northern circuit, of which much was expected, refused the second time around. The handicap was at thing for the light-weighted St. Jeanne, which got off flying and cantered all the way. The favor ite, Lady Karma, ran a shocking race and finished

T. E. Mannix put over one of his occasional good things in the last race, winning with Ivanboe, second choice in the betting. Henry rode a well-judged race on the winner. He lay in behind the pace to the stretch and then came away with much in hand. A coup with Sam Bernard had been planned in this race, and he was the medium of a heavy plunge just at post time. It was whispered about that Nancy, which was making her fourth start at this meeting, was only in to cut out the running for Sam Bernard, and the betting indicated that. Nancy did her part well, and set a hot pace to the stretch, but Sam Bernard could not get up.

Ormonde's Right was on his good behavior today He acted kindly at the post, kept up well with his field all the way and, coming strong in the stretch beat out the odds-on favorite, Poquessing. A little rest has evidently done this old sulker good.

THIRTY PRINCIPAL WINNING HORSES

In the course of the two weeks ending October 26 but few of the thirty horses which have won most money in 1907 made additions to their totals, Nealon being the only one to make any considerable increase coming when he won the Belmont Park Weight for Age Race, October 19. Most of the horses in this table have gone into retire-ment, but the Aqueduct meeting may bring more money to Ballot, Nealon, Glorifier, Tileing, Grapple Most of and Gold Lady, while Uncle and Montgomery may win in California before the close of the year. standing of the thirty leading horses and their winnings in the two weeks referred to, are

CORRIGAN STABLE A BIG ONE.

Ed Corrigan was in Chicago yesterday. He came from the farm at Lexington, Ky., where he spends most of his time nowadays. The yearlings there were shipped to Louisville vesterday. They will be sampled at Louisville and in about two weeks the big band of horses will start for New Orleans for a winter campaign. horses in the Corrigan stable the coming winter.

TRYING TO OUST EX-MAYOR GRAINGER

Louisville, Ky., October 30 .-- Proceedings have instituted in the Jefferson Circuit Court by County Attorney R. P. Lee to oust Charles F. Grainger from his membership in the State Racing Commission, as an alleged usurper. The allegation is that Mr. Grainger vacated his state office when he accepted a place on the Louisville water board.

ZIEGLER TO REGISTER WEANLINGS.

Lexington, Ky., October 30 .- Henry M. Ziegler, the Cincinnati theatrical man, accompanied trainer Charles Hughes, is here to inspect his twelve mares and ten weanlings at Highland Farm and will register the latter with the Jockey Club. He has only two yearlings.

Small Attendance the Result-Al Muller's Debut---Whisk Broom Runs Good Race.

Cincinnati, O., October 30.—Today's weather was anything but propitious to good racing and the attendance suffered accordingly. The track was still in bad shape and for the remainder of the racing term in these parts, mud performers will hold sway Today's card was a good one and would probably have attracted a large crowd under better weather conditions. The principal race was the three-quarters of a mile handicap and was won by Avaunteer, well ridden by Koerner. Avaunteer was backed into favoritism at post time, supplanting Colonel Bob. The latter ran a good race and finished second.

The greatest number of starters for this meeting went to the post in the third. Al Muller made his debut, and won like a good one after showing high speed all the way. His connections, it is said, missed a splendid opportunity to give the ring a scorehing, considering Dr. Simrall the probable

Rebel Queen's defeat by Whisk Broom and Linda Lake was unexpected and cost the players a goodly sum in the sixth. Rebel Queen did not possess her isual vim that characterized her recent previous attempts

Lady Martha, long overdue, landed the fifth in a lard drive from Agnes Wood and Ansonia, both long shots. Dulcinea, at a long price, enabled trainer "Bishop" Poole to saddle his first winner in months when he won the closing number in' a ap from Dainty Belle. Major T. J. Carse backed extensively in the opening dash, barely failed up in time to wear down Coon, the favorite

Martin was unseated from Tirhood when the latter got caught in a jam soon after the start, but escaped injury. He was fined $25 by the starter or misbehavior at the post while astride Marvel P. Martin Doyle will campaign Orvieto in New Or-sans. He believes the colt a good possibility.

Fay and Lattice will be sold by auction next Fri-

Milton Young was a visitor at the track. Speak ing of racing and the State Commission, Colonel Young said:

"We are satisfied with the situation in Kentucky, I think by now the people begin to understand that we are trying to do our best for the best interests of racing in Kentucky."

LAND LEAGUE'S CAMBRIDGESHIRE.

October 30.-This was the second day of the Newmarket Houghton meeting. Tracing feature was the Cambridgeshire Stakes, handicap for three-year-olds and upward, of $125 each, with $2,500 added, over the new Cambridge shire course of nine furlongs. There were eightythree entries and fifteen starters.

The race was won by the strongly backed third choice, Captain J. G. R. Homfray's Land League, bay colt, four years old, by Desmond-Combine an Irish horse trained by R. Sherwood, and carrying 111 pounds. Mr. G. Faber's Malua, 120 pounds. chestaut colt, four, by Marco-Harem, was second, and Mr. W. Bass' Stickup, bay colt, three, by Collar-Wafer II., 102 pounds, was third. Maher, the American jockey, rode Malua, which was a strong favorite at 2 to 1. Land League was 8 to 1 and Stickup 32 to 1.

The two greatest autumn handicaps run in England are the Cesarewitch and the Cambridgeshire, the first named being run at the Newmarket Second October meeting, and the latter at the Newmarket Houghton meeting. Betting over both is heavy but not in such great volume as it was twenty years back. The winner of yesterday is a good colt that won his first five races straight this year, including a walk-over at Newmarket, and was steadily backed in the ante-post betting from the time quotations became current.

ELLISON'S PLANS FOR FUTURE.

C. R. Ellison has returned to his former belief that there is more money to be made in paying moderate prices for yearlings which will develop in a year or two of racing into very desirable horses than there is in paying top prices for youngsters and have them turn out disappointingly has not won a race with a two-year-old which he ourchased at the annual sales for two seasons past. Vankee Girl, the higgest winner in his stable this year, was bought as a yearling, but did not win a race out of seventeen starts as a two-year-old. half-brother, Sir Navarre, has not b to the post this year, and is being saved for his three-year-old engagements. His owner was actuated, it is said, in doing this, by Yankee Girl's two-year-old performances, and he is hoping that the colt will do as well next year as the filly did at New Orleans last spring and in the east during the summer.

Ellison bought Yankee Consul for $2,200 as yearling, and sold him to Paul J. Rainey after winning a race with the Sempronius colt for $20, 000, and hopes to do nearly as well with some of the four yearlings now being trained at Montgomery Park by trainer Brazier. Sisters to Salvidere and Yankee Consul are the two fillies for which he bespeaks a great future next year.

FASIG-TIPTON CLOSE ENTRIES.

Lexington, Ky., October 30 .- Thomas F. Kelly, local representative of the Fasig-Tipton Company was today instructed not to accept any more en-tries for the sale which is to begin here November 25. Over 800 thoroughbreds have already been listed.

UNBEATEN LESBIA WINS MIDDLE PARK PLATE AT NEWMARKET.

Flair's Sister a Small but Remarkably Good Filly-Beats Pretty Polly's Sister-The White Knight's Notable Race.

London, October 19.-The crack filly, Leswon the Middle Park Plate at Newmarket October 18 and has gone into winter quarters unbeaten, although Vamose ran a dead heat with her for the Imperial Produce Stakes at Kempton Park. was not the favorite for the Middle Plate, that point of preference being given Miranda. the much-admired sister to Pretty Polly. But when it came to the running Lesbia led every foot of the and won by two lengths, with the Duke of Westminster's colt, Morena, second, and the good filly, Araminta, third. Miranda finished fourth. Richard Croker's filly, Rhodora, ran but made no showing, and hardly was expected to, having been amiss. Maher rode the winner, which is expected great things next year. Concerning the Middle Park Plate starters The London Sportsman says:

"Good fillies have won the Middle Park Plate, but they have been few in number, the colts for years on end dominating the situation, as may be seen from the fact that during the last quarter of a century only Busybody, Signorina, Pretty Polly and Flair had their names upon this scroll of feminine two-year-old fame. The field was small, and four of the seven starters were fillies, which four ruled the market, Miranda, Lesbia, Araminta and Rhodora being respectively first, second, third and fourth favorites. Miranda's sister, Pretty Polly, won the race in 1903, Lesbia's sister, Flair, won it in 1905. It was a wretched day for two-yearolds, windy, raw, rainy and cold, so it was no wonder that they did not do themselves justice in the paddock. Lesbia looked half the size she did at Kempton. She is a pony, but a strong pony. Miranda, too, did not fill the eye as she did at the last meeting. It was the cold and the wind. Miranda towered over Lesbia, but her weak middlepiece was more pronounced than ever, and in conformation she cannot compare with Pretty Polly, in many of her ways she is a replica. Pretty Polly had a peculiar way of carrying her head, and while walking of stopping and pricking her ears to listen to something. Miranda does the same. The expression of her face is exactly the same as Pretty Polly's. She met a better animal, and Lesbia will always beat her. Sir Daniel Cooper's filly won in a canter, and Miranda also had_to acknowledge defeat from Morena, a Kingsclere colt, which was sent to do duty instead of Va-mose, which ran a dead heat with Lesbia at Kempton. It would have been most interesting to see the two run that dead heat off.

Lesbia has done all that can be asked from racer, won all that she has been sent for. is true that she only made a dead heat on onoccasion, but she was not beaten and after that race it was discovered that she was suffering from a serious, but temporary, disturbing influwhich made her effort then distinctly creditable. All of the English critics describe Lesbia as being small, but very powerfully muscled and truly made. It is evident her lack Lesbia as of great size does not in the least prevent from running far and fast. Her pedigree will in-more time to get her round from the cough that she had a little time since."

The Middle Park Plate was long the most valu of England's races for two-year-olds. It was first run in 1866 and it was for many years the custom to regard the winner of the Middle Park as the most probable winner of the Epsom Derby following year. It did not always work out that way by any means, but quite a number of Derby winners were also winners of the Middle k. Melton, Donovan, Isinglass, Ladas and Gal-More being the most recent instances. Its value to Lesbia was $12,375 and with 126 pounds up, she ran its three-quarters in 1:17\(\epsilon\). In its earlier years it always netted the winner over $20,000, its greatest value being in 1868, when it brought the winner $22,400.

According to Sporting Life, it was her pre liminary gallop before the race that made Mi-randa the favorite for the Middle Park Plate and of this incident it says:

"Miranda was left to furnish the sensation of canter, and when she swept down to post in that bewitching way which immediately recalled memories of her illustrious sister's effort less style, there was quite a buzz of admiration and such a rush to 'get on' that Pretty Polly's sister was quite unbackable just prior to the start, layers refusing in many instances to trade. That canter cost backers a lot of money, for, though Miranda carried a bold front to the bushes, she died out quickly from that point, whereas Lesbia continued on the even tenor of her way and won very easily."

The winners of the Middle Park Plate since 1890 have been as follows:

English racing folks will not for many a day top talking of the Cesarewitch of 1907 and The White Knight's gallant effort behind Demure.

Vigilant, in the Sportsman, writes of the race: "It did not take long for the excitement to cool down after Demure's victory in the Cesarewitch, was only saved from condemnation as the most uninteresting race in the annals of its history by the magnificent struggle of The White His effort will go down to posterity as one of the finest handicap performances of all time, and on paper, at any rate, was greater than that of either Isonomy or Bendigo. I shall not forget the thrill of excitement that ran through me when the big horse, having one by one disposed of all the others, came thundering down Bushes hill in pursuit of Demure, and continued to lessen the gap as they climbed the ascent It was really splendid, and I doubt not there were thousands present who, like myself, regretted the impossibility of giving him the push behind which would have enabled him to smash up all records. Of course, the vexed question again presents itself as to which is the better horse, The White Knight or Velocity, which as stayers stand relatively in the same position to one another as did the famous mile cappers, Victor Wild and Clorane, twelve or thir teen years ago, and it is a-thousand pities that, having fallen a victim to the exigencies of training, Mrs. Jackson's horse cannot have another op portunity of throwing down the gauntlet to his Doncaster Cup opponent. Great and brilliant as was "the Knight's" achievement on Wednesday however, I see no valid reason why one should suppose there was any fluke about Velocity's victory on the Town Moor, but it is no use arguing the point in existing circumstances, and the best way out of the difficulty is to admit once and for all that they are two sterling good horses, of which the last-named at least could boast the better speed. A great stud career should be in front of both, for apart from their racing capabilities they are well bred for the purpose. The White Knight being by Simon horse Desmond out of Pella, by Buckshot, her dam Pamela, by King John out of Al, while Velocity, which is perhaps the better looking as regards beautiful quality, is by Speed (son of Hampton) out of Ballast, by Baliol out of Charter, by King John-whose name it will be observed, occurs in both pedigrees. ing regard to the fact that Mr. W. R. Wyndham handed over $50,000 to Col. Kirkwood for a half share of the horse, The White Knight's value may be appraised at double that figure, whereas it has been authoritatively announced that unless enthusiast comes along with an offer of $125,000, Mrs. Jackson will not part with Velocity.

There seems to be some little misunderstanding over the offer which M. Gaston Dreyfus made for Velocity. That gentleman was at Ostend when Mrs. Jackson's horse won the Grand Prix and after the victory he immediately expressed a desire to purchase the winner, with a view to Velocity be coming a stallion at his well-known stud farm. The sum he offered was declined, and M. Dreyfus has made no advance upon it; but last week, after the Municipal, he received a letter from England, offering to sell him Velocity for $125,000, has replied saying that he could not pay that price. Demure, under ninety-three pounds, is an animal of a different stamp from the White Knight, a free-going kind little mare, and Wootton, who and the sensible, well-judged race, was never at any stage placed in a difficulty. The White Knight was giving forty-five pounds to the winner, an animal of his own age, and it made men hold their breath, it made their hearts beat faster to see the challenge and to watch the finish. Few men have ever seen a finer handicap performance. Sheen, it is true, won with 128 pounds in 1890, but Sheen was not giving forty-five pounds to a horse, which month previously had run second in the St. eger. It has been acknowledged without demur that up to yesterday the best performance ever done in the Cesarewitch was that of Isonomy in 1879, when he finished fourth to Chippendale, carrying 134 pounds. Tom Cannon, the rider of Isonomy on that occasion, was present, and on being asked to recall the race, he said: "They declared to win with Westbourne, and I had to lie within a reasonable distance. I thought that Westbourne was going to be beaten, so I asked Isonomy to go out and win his race, but Isonomy was cannoned and turned half round. I think, but for Isonomy would have won." "Which is the into best long-distance horse you ever saw?" "I shall always stick to Isonomy." "You think Isonomy did more than The White Knight did today?" think so." The rider of Isonomy went on to The rider of Isonomy went on to explain why he held this opinion, but so far as poundage goes, Cannon's argument does not hold good, because Isonomy was only giving Chippendale thirty-two pounds, whereas The White Knight was giving Demure forty-five pounds.

The time of the Cesarewitch's two and a quarter miles was 3:59%, and the field the smallest sine 1839. Young Wootton, who rode Demure so well, is one of the coming English lightweights, without an engagement and is not yet fourteen years old. The history of the Cesarewitch since 1886, is as follows:

Winner—Br. g. by Solitaire II.—Cattle Kate (trained by F. D. Weir).

Went to post at 3:04. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Single Stone drew out and set a stiff early pace, shook off his nearest attendants in the stretch and won off as his rider pleased. Blacksheep ran in forward and persistent pursuit of the winner and finished a game second. Reene W., away poorly, closed a big gap and finished a fast going third, but pocketed, and was second best. Sussex made up ground steadily. The same applies to Tee Tick. All Alone tired after close pursuit of the winner for a half mile and was short. Polly Watts, shuffled to the rear and nearly left, closed a big gap. Belle Griffon was speedy, but again failed to stay. The winner was entered for $1.00c; no bid.

Scratched—71592 Louis Reederer, 97; 71515 Queen Marguerite, 104.

Winner—Br. g, by Inverness—Sauteuse (trained by A. Hamel).
Wes, after, pulling up repeatedly for six furlongs, dashed through into the lead on the inside on the last tarn and won with plenty in hand. St. Valentine got away poorly, but was quickly rushed up into forward contention and was generally messed about in the last half, but was a game second. Standover made the running for six furlongs and tired, but held on well to save third place. Andrew Mack, badly Overweights—Wes, 1 pound.

Went to post at 4:25. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Adriuche broke slowly, but improved her position rapidly on the extreme outside and drew out on the last turn and won with something to spare. Bolando closed an immense gap, turned for home on the outside and failed to get up in a cyclonic stretch sprint. Sparker, well and forwardly placed all the way, was a lucky third. Lotus Brandt, on the inside in close quarters in the early running, came with a rush at the end. Norbitt, badly outrun for the first quarter, made up ground well. Gosben Chief held on well. KEEN ART IN TRAINING HORSES. trainer will be lucky to get him back to form again

Not Enough Restriction About the Granting of Licenses.

Latonia, Ky., October 30 .- A party of trainers were recently discussing the merits and qualifications of their art at the race track here when the conversation turned on the granting of licenses. Said one of the number, who seemed to voice the general sentiment, "I think the turf authorities ought to place greater restrictions about the granting of trainers' licenses than they now do. As matters stand at present, almost any one who has been around with horses for six months or a year, if a man of good character, can secure a license. In my opinion all applicants for trainers' licenses should be required to have served an apprenticeship of at least two or three years in stables of some prominence. They should have served an apprenticeship of sufficient duration to make it certain that they know something about the training busi-

Another trainer, and a veteran in the game, said: The turf is overrun with young business men who to into racing, buy a few horses, employ a second class trainer, most generally a rubber, and hang around the stable a few months until they think they know it all when they undertake to do the training themselves. These men are wont to flatter themselves in the assertions that 'anyone can train a race horse,' and that 'good horses make good trainers.' A greenhorn at the game caunot successfully train a race horse. If the horse is a Blitzen. the experienced man may pump the work into him and win a few races with him, but the moment he develops a lameness or an ailment, the beginner is up a tree and he will almost cerin the course of a year or more. Good horses of course help the reputations of good trainers, but the high class animals are more difficult to handle than the cheap ones. In view of great winning possi-bilities, and the pointing for future stake engagements, they require more constant and more care

'As to good horses making good trainers." re marked another member of the party. "I recall the handling and development of Henry of Navarre by Byron McClelland, who was then and is still conceded by his brother professionals in the east, to have been one of the very greatest trainers this country ever produced. So well established was McClelland's reputation that every spring when he went east, his brother trainers were always anxious to have his opinion on matters horsewise, and especially his judgment as to any promising two-year-olds they might have in their stables. Henry of Navarre was a peculiar animal. He was a tall, lengthy horse, but narrow in the barrel and delicate as horses of such build almost always In spite of this constitutional tendency, Mc-Clelland kept him in training throughout his two and three-year-old career, and if I remember rightly, did not miss more than one stake engagement with him while in all of his races he close in around the money. Henry of Navarre was a delicate feeder and on more than one occasion McClelland was on nettles about him prior to the running of important events. Here was a case where the great trainer made the great race horse, for, in less competent hands, it is not likely that Henry of Navarre would have finished out more than half of his two-year-old form.

Another illustration of the quality of a first class trainer was offered in a statement concerning John beginner is up a tree and he will almost certainly set the horse back so far that a really good Daily America ready for the Realization, which

The horse developed some ailment and Rogers sat up with the horse all one night and noticed him reaching back and trying to grab himself in the flank. He made up his mind that the trouble was altogether a bowel disorder, treated Daily America accordingly and sent him to the post fit to run the best race of his career. Under less competent management the horse very probably would have been taken seriously ill with fever and died."

That efforts are not made to maintain a higher professional standard among the trainers of the west, is partly due to the apathy and inactivity of the trainers themselves, as both the American Turf Association and the Western Jockey Club would no doubt consider any suggestions they might make in the matter of restricting licenses.

SENORITA'S GLORIOUS RECORD.

The price paid for Infanta at the Keene cast-off sale was erroneously given as $700 by Daily Racing Form's New York dispatch of Monday. matter of record that Infanta sold for $1,100, not to P. T. Chinn, but to A. R. Hamilton. Infanta is the ninth of the daughters and sons of the famous old mare Senorita, by Prince Charlie— Gondola, now twenty-one years old and which raced gloriously in the colors of the late Captain Sam

Senorita's record for that racing term, after which she retired to the Senorita Stud, is shown in the table below:

Sequence II. and Sam Sturgis were never started Manvilla, which was afterward sold to Green B. Morris, won five races as a two-year-old and ran once unplaced as a three-year-old, this being her last start. Agramonte started but once, three-year-old, and was then unplaced. Rheta was the best of the get of Senorita in former years, races in her two-year-old defeating good fields on each occasion. She raced three times as a three-year-old without winning when she was retired. Valencia was extensively raced as a two-year-old in 1905, having starte twenty-three times and winning three races. Valen cia also won three races in 1906 out of thirtee starts. She has not started this year.

Owners still race largely for their own money in The gross value of the Middle Park Plate is $14,350. The whole of this amount was contribnted by the owners themselves, for although the Jockey Club nominally added $2,500, this amount was wiped out by fees from the owners, amounted to $2,800, aside from the sweepstakes of $150 each, with $100 forfeit.

B. Lynham, one of the leading riders in England, has been engaged by M. Maurice Calliaut, the French turfman, for whom Johnny Reiff rode this season. The contract is for three years at $10,000 a year. Lynham is a good rider, but will have to stir himself to beat the record made in France by his fellow countrymen, Stern and Bellhouse, the only riders in France to hold their own with the American boys. Reiff will ride in Germany

Merry Fox, a three-year-old, by Flying Fox-Flower of Wit, for which G. H. Freeman paid $25,000 as a yearling, was sold in the paddock at Newmarket the other day to dissolve a partnership, and realized $500. The colt was a distinct failure

IDLE HOUR IS INCORPORATED.

Lexington, Ky., October 30.—Articles incorpora ting the Idle Hour Stock Farm have been filed here The capital stock is $50,000 in $100 shares. Bradley of Chicago has 400 shares, J. R. Bradley of New York and Thomas F. Dolan of Lexington fifty shares each. Its purpose is buying land and breeding and racing thoroughbred business to begin November 1. E. R. Bradley until now has been the sole owner of the farm.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

H. M., Chicago. Replies are not made to

Ross, Chicago. The wager on High Bear to show as a draw.

H. F., Louisville, Ky. Horace E. won ten races or Barney Schreiber.

F. G., Cincinnati, O., Virginia Green opened at 6 to 1 and closed at 15, 6 and 3.
R. K., Peoria, Ill. The parlay having become a single bet, would be subject to the rule and win at 4 to 1.

J. B., Toronto, Ont. There are but five so-called turf classics in England. They are Two Thousand Guineas, One Thousand Guineas, Derby, Oaks and St. Leger, run in that order.

W. S. W., Cincinnati, O. Aunt Rose has we three races, been second four times and third twice. Her winning races were before September 1. Sine that date she has been second three times an third twice and won $775.

R. W. M., Toronto, Ont. For the reason that there was not enough "coming" to execute the bet on Dapple Gold after Killiecrankie was scratched, the bet was a draw. The bookmaker had no right to make a part of the provisional bet for you.

FOURTEEN M'GRATHIANA MARES DIE.

Lexington, Ky., October 30,-It is shown by Colnel Milton Young's report, mailed a day or two ago to Registrar Rowe of the Jockey Club, that out of 392 mares bred in 1906, there were 178 foals at McGrathiana Stud this year. The remaining 214 mares proved barren, slipped their foals, lost them after birth or died. Thus, a fraction less than forty per cent. of living foals was obtained. More than half of the mares failing to foal, proved barren. The death rate for the year was small and the general health of the mares now at McGrathiana Stud is excellent. Fourteen mares were lost this year, as follows:
